Move Forward Without
The Sting of Foreclosure

NEW OPPORTUNITIES FOR MORTGAGE HELP

Since the launch of Making Home Affordable, there have been a number of program additions and enhancements, all designed to better support the evolving needs of struggling homeowners across the country. If you were previously ineligible for MHA, or you now need additional mortgage assistance because of a new hardship, take another look at MHA to be sure you've identified all of the new opportunities for mortgage help. Visit MakingHomeAffordable.gov to learn more about MHA programs. Then call 888-995-HOPE (4673) to speak with a housing counseling expert.

AVOID SCAMS

Far too often, homeowners looking for mortgage help end up victimized by scam artists. To learn more about avoiding and reporting scams, visit MakingHomeAffordable.gov.

HARDEST HIT FUND INCREASES OPTIONS IN SOME STATES

MAKING HOME AFFORDABLE

MORTGAGE TROUBLE?

The twists and turns of life are often unpredictable. Has a major setback — at work, with your health, or with your marriage — turned everything upside down? If setbacks in your life have made your home unaffordable and you’re looking for the best way to move forward, there are solutions. Get on the right path to real help and real answers right now.

MHA OFFERS A RANGE OF SOLUTIONS

The Making Home Affordable® (MHA) Program is an important part of the Obama Administration’s comprehensive plan to help homeowners get mortgage relief and avoid foreclosure. MHA programs offer solutions that could help you:

- Leave your home without the sting of foreclosure.
- Reduce your monthly mortgage payments.
- Take advantage of today’s low mortgage interest rates.
- Get mortgage relief while searching for re-employment.
- Get help when you owe more than your home is worth.

HAFA PROVIDES POWERFUL ADVANTAGES

The cornerstone of MHA’s Home Affordable Foreclosure Alternatives (HAFA) Program is the short sale. In a HAFA short sale, you are able to sell your house for its current market value, even though you owe more on your mortgage. If a HAFA short sale doesn’t work, you may be able to give the title back to your mortgage company in a HAFA deed-in-lieu of foreclosure (DIL). HAFA offers a number of benefits:

- In a HAFA short sale, your mortgage company can work with you upfront to determine an acceptable sale price; but if you have already listed your property for sale or have received an offer for less than you owe, it’s still not too late to be considered for HAFA.
- Once you complete a HAFA short sale or DIL, you must be released from any remaining mortgage debt.
- Through HAFA, you may qualify to get $3,000 in relocation assistance to help you get back on your feet.
- In most cases, HAFA has a less negative effect on your credit score than a foreclosure or even a typical short sale.
- Now, you can use HAFA to get help with your primary residence or rental property.

ACT NOW! DON’T DELAY!

The process for getting mortgage help can be complex and confusing. That’s why it’s so important that you get help as quickly as possible. In fact, the sooner you seek help, the more options you’ll have. Visit MakingHomeAffordable.gov to learn more about MHA programs. Then call 888-995-HOPE (4673) to speak with a housing counseling expert. They’re available 24/7 and can help in more than 170 different languages. Most importantly, they’ll work with you and your mortgage company to find the right solution for your individual situation. Visit HUD.gov to find a HUD-approved housing counseling agency near you.

STEP 1:
LEARN ABOUT YOUR OPTIONS.

For more information on HAFA and other programs designed to provide mortgage help, visit MakingHomeAffordable.gov. If your mortgage is owned, insured, or guaranteed by Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, FHA, VA, or USDA, ask your mortgage company which solutions will work best for you.

STEP 2:
GET YOUR FINANCIAL INFORMATION IN ORDER.

Your mortgage company will ask for personal and financial information in order to determine what kind of help they can offer you. Always provide a copy of the most current version of anything requested, and provide it in a timely manner. Your requirements may vary, but be prepared to present the following:

- Evidence of the cause of your mortgage trouble.
- Income documentation, including your two most recent pay stubs or your Profit & Loss Statement (if self-employed) showing your year-to-date income.
- Information about your expenses, including any other mortgages on your home.
- Documentation of your assets, including your two most recent bank statements.

STEP 3:
CONSULT A HOUSING EXPERT.

With so many financial terms and a process that can be complicated, you would benefit greatly from the help of a professional. Let an expert from a HUD-approved housing counseling agency guide you through the process; help you prepare needed documents and forms; facilitate the dialogue between you and your mortgage company; and in many cases, even submit your application for mortgage assistance. Studies suggest that homeowners who work with housing counseling experts are more likely to avoid foreclosure. Best of all, they work in your best interest and at no cost to you. Call 888-995-HOPE (4673) for help 24/7 and in more than 170 different languages; or visit HUD.gov to find a housing counseling agency near you. To complete a short sale, you will also need to work with a real estate agent, so look for one who is licensed and has a good reputation for doing business in your neighborhood. Ask whether the agent specializes in short sales or is short sale-certified.

STEP 4:
SUBMIT YOUR REQUEST FOR MORTGAGE ASSISTANCE.

If this is the first time you’ve worked with your mortgage company, they will consider you for options to keep your home before they move forward with HAFA. Be prepared to supply the financial information you’ve gathered as part of a complete Initial Package of application materials:

- Request for Mortgage Assistance (RMA) Form
- IRS Form 4506T or 4506T-EZ; or your most recent tax return
- Income verification

STEP 5:
BE PERSISTENT.

Stay in touch with your mortgage company throughout the process. Call for updates and respond to their requests. Remain focused and be persistent about getting to a resolution. Keep in mind that HAFA is just one of the tools your mortgage company has in its toolbox. If you apply but don’t qualify for HAFA, your mortgage company should explain to you in writing the reason and give some alternatives. Ask what other solutions might suit your particular situation and be sure you know whom to contact for answers.
